Surprised While Robbing Postoffice and Rounded Up by a Posse

THREE WOUNDED, TWO CAPTURED

None of Posse Wounded in Vigorous Battle

POWDER PLANT PAY DAY

Makes Postoffice a Busy Place in City of 25,000, Which Recently Was a Quiet Little Village—Robbers Had Visited Postoffice Two Weeks Ago—Robbers Heavily Armed.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Penn's Grove, N. J., Jan. 8.—A gang of six or seven cracksmen were surprised while robbing the postoffice here early today with the result that three of the robber band are in a hospital with bullet wounds and two others are in the Camden county jail, after a battle with a posse of citizens, policemen and postal inspectors.

Because of the great number of employees at the du Pont Powder company at Carney's Point, N. J., Penn's Grove has grown from quite a little place to a thriving town of about 25,000 persons in consequence of which the postoffice these days is a busy place.

On pay day at the powder plant two weeks ago, an attempt was made to rob the postoffice and yesterday was again pay day and another visit from the robbers was anticipated. Chief Marshal Harbeson of Penn's Grove, enlisted the services of half a dozen citizens to help his force of four policemen and postal officials sent four inspectors. All were armed.

The postoffice was surrounded at midnight by this guard and at 2:30 a. m. the robbers silently approached the little building from different directions, "jimmied" open the front door and entered. One man remained outside as lookout. Soon afterward the posse closed in on the postoffice and the lookout opened fire. Instantly the robbers appeared at windows and doors and started shooting, the posse returning the fire vigorously.

The robbers retreated under the continuous fire of the posse, but three fell wounded. They were taken to the hospital where they gave their names as John Mayo, 42, St. Paul, Minn.; Frank Matson, 38, Galesburg, Ill.; and Charles Collins Mayo was shot in the arm as was Matson. The latter also was shot in the foot and his face was peppered with bird shot. Collins was shot in the hand. After the battle, the town was searched and two of the gang were arrested. All the robbers were heavily armed, but none of the posse was struck.

ARM DISLOCATED.

Dale Schrier, the 10 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schrier, of 17 Greenville street, dislocated his left arm at the elbow today. He was skating on roller skates when he fell on the sidewalk. The injury was dressed by Dr. C. F. Legge and Dr. W. A. Funk.

Report that Foreign Agents Had Encouraged Strike Will Be Investigated by Mediator

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Columbus, Jan. 8.—The state industrial commission decided today to send Fred C. Croxton, head of the state statistical bureau, to Youngstown to act as mediator in the strike situation. He will confer with employees and strike leaders tomorrow. He will leave tonight, accompanied by W. J. Boesel and George Miles, as deputies.

The industrial commission's action in sending Mr. Croxton and his deputies to Youngstown, was taken on its own initiative, it was said. No request for assistance looking toward mediation had been received from strikers or company officials.

Mr. Croxton said he would make an effort to investigate charges that agents of a European power had encouraged the strike as a means of preventing manufacture of war supplies.

Among the strikes which Mr. Croxton has been influential in settling within the last two years are

GERMAN ATTACK IN WEST

Made Against British Front But According to Official London Advice, Was Repulsed—Adjournment of Parliament for Week-End Brings Lull in Conscription Controversy.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, Jan. 8.—The Russian offensive still occupies the most important place in the news of the war with the capture of Czartorysk as the latest achievement reported. The Russians claim full possession of the village, but the Austrians deny they have advanced any further than the cemetery.

The Austrians apparently are fighting desperately in this region in the effort to hold their positions as a screen for Kovel and a link between the Austro-German armies in Galicia and those further north in the neighborhood of Pinsk, which is threatened with envelopment as a result of the Russian advance.

The news regarding Czartorysk must be taken with reserve. A German report dated later than that of the Russians claim that all the lost ground has been re-taken. The town may become a second Czernowitz, which apparently is untenable by either side.

On the British front in the west, the Germans have attacked near the Lille-Armentieres railroad but according to official British advice have been repulsed. Both the British and French heavy artillery were busily engaged yesterday.

Constantinople reports the allies again have bombarded the narrows from land and sea.

Adjournment of parliament over the week-end has brought a lull in the controversy over compulsory military service.

American Minister Was a Passenger On Liner Persia

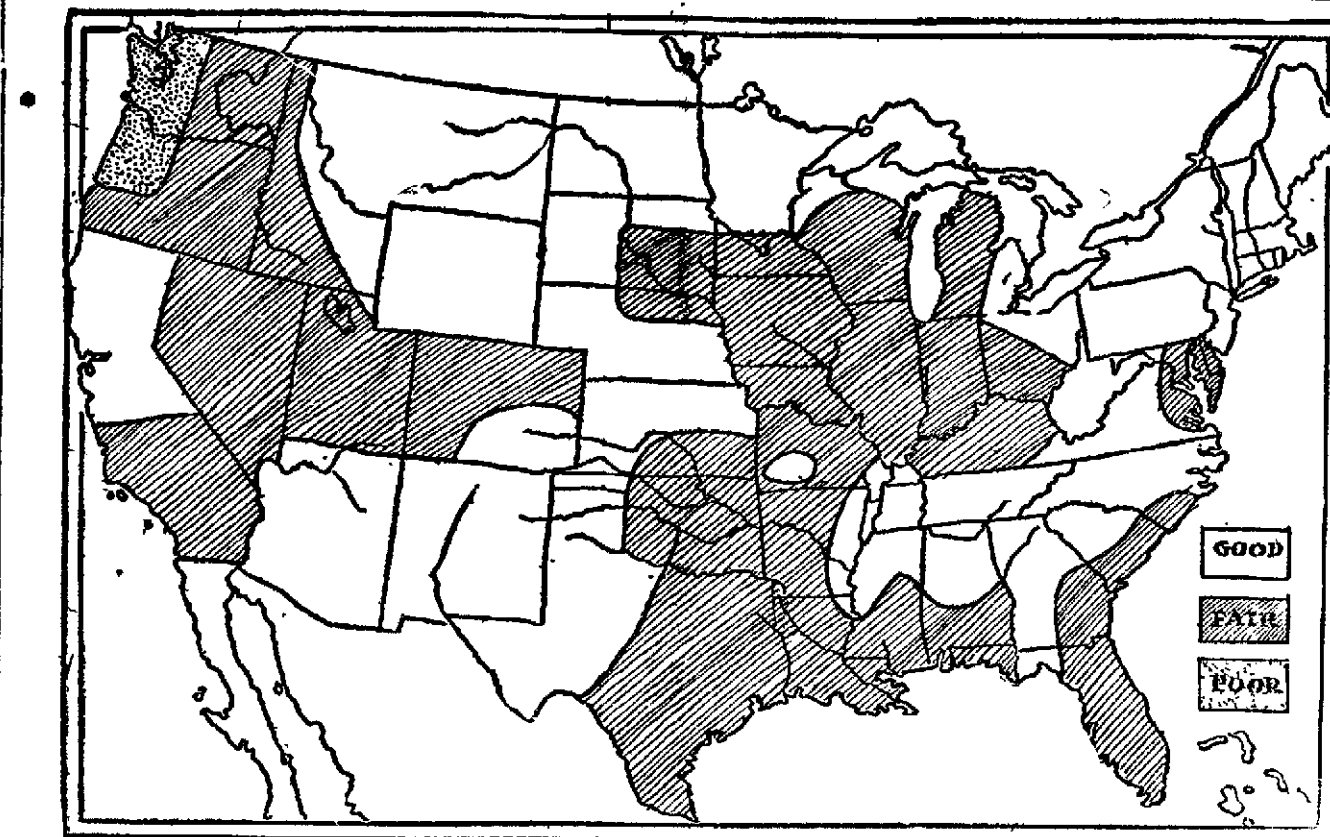

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Jan. 8.—Confirmation of reports that the Rev. Homer R. Salisbury of this city, an American citizen, was a passenger on the steamer Persia, sunk in the Mediterranean, was received today by the state department from Consul General Gaullin at Marseilles, France. Mr. Salisbury arrived at Marseilles on the boat train from Boulogne, and took passage on the Persia, the dispatch said. His name does not appear among the survivors.

Authorities at Marseilles, and agents of the P. and O. line there have no records of passengers who arrived on the boat train, as they held London permits, the consul said, and were not booked at Marseilles.

FOUR INJURED IN PASSENGER WRECK

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Huntington, W. Va., Jan. 8.—Four persons were injured, none seriously, early today, when fast passenger train No. 36, of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad crashed into an extra freight train near Clyffside, Ky., west of here. One unidentified passenger was slightly injured, as well as Engineer Burk, George Dent, fireman, and Conductor Stewart. The cause of the collision has not yet been ascertained.

Germany Makes More Concessions to United States in the Frye Case; Lusitania Matter Is About Settled

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, January 8.—Germany's note accepting the American contention that the mere placing of non-combatants in lifeboats when a prize is to be destroyed, is not under all conditions to be considered assuring them a place of safety, was made public today by the state department.

The note is the latest communication over the sinking of the American sailing ship William P. Frye, and besides the important concession regarding the question of small boats, taking up the question of indemnity for the sunken ship and for arbitrating the disputed provisions of the Prussian-American treaty.

The most important part of the text relating to the sinking of ships carrying contraband and the safety of non-combatants follows. "Until the decision of the permanent court of arbitration the German naval forces will sink only such American vessels as are loaded with absolute contraband when the preconditions provided by the declaration of London are present. In this the German government quite shares the views of the American government that all possible care must be taken for the security of the crew and passengers of a vessel to be sunk."

Consequently the persons found on board a vessel may not be ordered into lifeboats except when the general conditions that is to say, the weather, the condition of the sea, and the neighborhood of the coasts afford absolute certainty that the boats will reach the nearest port. For the rest, the German government begs to point out that in cases where German naval forces have sunk neutral vessels for carrying contraband, no loss of life has yet occurred."

Germany declined, however, to have the commissioners who will settle the Frye damages meet in Washington because, it was pointed out that the German expert, Dr. Greve of Bremen, director of the North German Lloyd, would be exposed to danger of capture during a voyage to America, "in consequence of the conduct of maritime war by England contrary to international law."

It is suggested that the German and American experts might get in a touch by correspondence. Germany also declines to assent at this time to the nomination of an umpire in the absence of a determination of whether the experts would settle damages or principle. In case the United States insists that the experts meet in Washington and that an umpire be named at once, Germany suggests that the damages be arranged by diplomatic negotiations.

For the arbitration of the Prussian-American treaty, Germany in the note proposes a special court of five from the permanent court at

The Hague of which each country shall choose two and the four shall choose the fifth to meet at The Hague June 15. The special court would decide whether under the Prussian-American treaty "the belligerent contracting party is prevented from sinking merchant vessels of the neutral contracting party for carrying contraband when such sinking is permissible, according to the general principles of international law."

The United States has contended that the German cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich had no right under the treaty to sink the Frye. The German note proposes that both parties present copies of their argument to the court on March 1, and deposit their counter cases and evidence on May 1st.

Negotiations between the United States and Germany over the Lusitania incident, it seems today, virtually have reached a conclusion. This became apparent following the receipt of two communications from Germany through Count Von Bernstorff, German ambassador—one offering indemnity for loss of American lives in the Lusitania disaster and the other conveying assurances regarding the conduct of submarine warfare.

Indications were that the German proposals in the Lusitania affair would be accepted by the United States.

Speaks In Command, Who is Disposing of Troops to Keep Situation In Hand.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Youngstown, O., Jan. 8.—At noon today state troops were in full control of the situation at East Youngstown, and it was expected that complete martial law would be declared before night in order to prevent any new outbreaks after night fall. A near clash in authority occurred this morning when Mayor W. H. Cunningham, of East Youngstown, declined to issue the necessary formal appeal to General Speaks to bring in his troops and the militia was held at the city limits until an agreement could be reached. Cunningham wanted to call on the two Youngstown militia companies for strike duty first but when Speaks made it plain that it would be more likely to start fresh trouble if local forces were employed Cunningham yielded and the Cleveland guardsmen were sent into the steel mills.

ONE KILLED, TWENTY-THREE INJURED.

Youngstown, Jan. 8.—At noon today a canvass of the morgues and hospitals gave a list of one dead, and twenty-three injured as the result of last night's steel strike rioting in East Youngstown. The dead man is yet unidentified. He was 23 years old and was shot while in the act of looting a store.

TROOPS SENT TO ADJOINING VILLAGE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Youngstown, Jan. 8.—General Speaks has received an appeal from citizens of Struthers to send help at once to that village for protection from rioting there. The message stated that a mob has formed and is engaged in a general fight in the streets, men shooting and beating up each other. General Speaks at once sent two companies of militia to Struthers in automobiles.

Later reports said that the situation at Struthers was under control, but troops will be kept on duty there to prevent further trouble.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) YOUNGSTOWN, O., Jan. 8.—Fearing a new outbreak of rioting this morning when a crowd of strike sympathizers gathered on the hill opposite the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company plant, Brigadier General John C. Speaks ordered four Cleveland militia companies of the Fifth regiment to the strike scene. Two companies marched into the plant to reinforce 100 strike guards and the other two companies patrolled the opposite hill to prevent the mob organizing. Operations at the mill are entirely suspended today and no attempt was made to operate. Three hundred office employees are marooned in the plant where they spent the night for safety and to keep fires going.

Before noon today, practically every company of the three regiments comprising the second brigade of the Ohio National Guard ordered here for strike duty was either in the city or its suburbs. The mobilization of the Fifth, Eighth and Fourth regiments was accomplished in record time. Brigadier General Speaks distributed his men as follows: East Youngstown strike zone—Fifth regiment—Companies C, F, I and K, Cleveland, Co. D, Warren, entire twelve companies of Eighth regiment—Held in reserve; Fifth regiment—Company A, Berea; Co. B, Elyria; Co. G, Norwalk; Co. L, Conneaut; Co. E, Geneva.

The Fourth regiment will be kept on its train outside the city until (continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

Some Fancy Prices Paid for Prize Winners—Exhibition Will Close This Evening.

Many of the feathered members of the Poultry Show now being held in the old M. YOUNGSTOWN MOB LOOTS AND BURNS

It is needed. Its forces can be on the scene in 45 minutes, if necessary. The Fifth scored a hit by getting several of its companies on the ground first. The special train over the Pennsylvania railroad, which left Cleveland at 2 o'clock this morning, arrived here before 4 a. m. and brought five companies of the Fifth. Col. C. N. Zimmerman was in command. They were companies C, F, I, and K, of Cleveland, and Co. A of Berea. They were joined here by Co. D of Warren and Miles.

The remainder of the Fifth came in scattering detachments later in the day. Co. E left Geneva at 10 o'clock this morning and came by way of Ashtabula, over the New York Central railroad. Co. G left Newark at 4 a. m. today and was rushed direct to the strike scene. Co. B of Elkhira and Co. L of Connecticut were also on the way.

The Eighth regiment arrived on two special trains. One train left Newark early this morning over the Pennsylvania and reached this city at 10 a. m. This train carried Co. A of Bucyrus, and picked up Co. M at Mansfield, and the following enroute: Company H, Shreve; Co. B, Wooster; Co. C, Canton; Co. I, Alliance; Co. E, C. Volstead of the First, was aboard the train, having come with Co. A from Bucyrus to Mansfield. Company I of Tiffin also joined the remainder of the force at Mansfield, and went on from there on this train. The other detachment of the regiment came in over the Erie railroad early today. This train started from Gallia and carried Co. L of Gallia and picked up Co. E at Ashland, Co. G at Wadsworth and Co. F at Akron.

The Fourth regiment, commanded by Col. P. L. Hecox of Columbus, reached the outskirts of the city shortly before noon, having mobilized at Columbus late last night from surrounding towns and come on a special train over the Pennsylvania railroad.

Led by Mayor A. B. Smith, 220 citizens of Southwestern village, which lies across the Mahoning river, opposite East Youngstown, accompanied themselves and massed on the bridge leading across the river early to repel a threatened invasion of strikers. The men are armed with rifles and revolvers. A charge of fifty pounds of dynamite has been placed beneath the bridge and a mine is ready to carry a current of electricity to the blast and blow up the bridge the moment a mob starts across.

A notice has been posted to this effect and all persons warned away from the bridge. Damage to property has been threatened in Southwestern.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Youngstown, O., Jan. 8. With three regiments of the Ohio National Guard under command of Brigadier General John C. Speaks, parading the smoldering ruins of the village of East Youngstown, or pumped in the mills near by, civil and military authorities here today expressed belief that for the present at least an end had been put to the wild scenes of rioting and looting which marked last night, and left the thriving little city a mass of embers.

One life is known to have been lost, fully a block of the town, including the entire business section, were burned and several thousand people were driven from their homes. The loss is placed at no less than $1,000,000.

Physicians called to look after the wounded place the number at 100, although only fifteen have been brought to hospitals here.

While the majority had been shot, there were many wounds from knives, bearing out the statement that when the rioters were finally driven from Wilson avenue, the main street of the town, they began fighting among themselves.

The trouble began late yesterday when the day shift at the plant of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co. quit for the day. The plant is located on the flats of the Mahoning river, several hundred feet from the hillside on which is built East Youngstown, where most of the small shops and saloons on the side streets, but then it turned its attention to the more pretentious stores on Wilson avenue.

By this time it had lost all semblance of leadership and splitting up into bands of a dozen or more went freely about the work of destruction. Saloon after saloon was broken into, looted and fired, the flames spreading to the other business blocks on the street. Fanned by a strong wind the fire tore its way up the hill and many residences, some occupied by the rioters were burned.

Mayor W. H. Cunningham and the ten policemen who make up the protective force of the village, early realized the situation was beyond them and gathered at the police station at the west end of the business district or wandered along the streets unable to do anything. Sheriff J. C. Unstead, earlier in the evening had been blinded temporarily by red pepper thrown in his eyes by a rioter, and later conferred with Mayor Cunningham, who admitted he was unable to stop the rioting. This condition the sheriff reported to General Speaks, and Lieutenant Colonel Charles C. Weybrecht, who had been sent to look over the situation.

Then the call was sent for state troops.

The crowd seemed to grow until there were hundreds of drink-crazed men and women roaming the streets. The fire department had been called out at the first alarm of fire, but the hose was quickly cut. The Youngstown fire department was called. Chief Joseph Wallace, with men and equipment ready to send from the city, but found it was useless to risk lives and property as long as the mob held the town. At 10 o'clock the entire length of the village was in flames. Absolutely no attempt was made to extinguish the flames or save the thousands of dollars in property being carried away or destroyed.

Early in the evening the mob had attacked the postoffice. It was a small building and the dozen or more men who entered it made short work of it. Additional excitement was created by the report that the mob had dragged the safe into the street and blown it to pieces. Later it was stated that the men had been content with robbing the strong box before applying the torch to the building.

One of the handsomest buildings in the village was the bank of G. V. Hamory. The mob paid no attention to it until after ten o'clock. Then it was recalled that a saloon had stood in this section, and there was a rush to the place. The saloon was quickly looted and fired and the flames spreading to the bank, soon doomed the structure.

A dry goods store, near Seventh street and Wilson avenue, shared a building with a saloon. The particular party of rioters who selected it for their prey made the mistake of attacking the dry goods store first. As they approached the corner a man appeared in a window in the living quarters above the store and fired one shot from his revolver. A rioter, who had not been identified this morning, fell dead in the street, and the rest fled. They withdrew to the other side of Wilson avenue and after a conference tossed a brick through one of the plate glass windows. No shot came from above and encouraged they stormed the place.

At a dozen or more places in Wilson avenue, barrels of whiskey were scattered in the street in the midway, and surrounding them were many men and women gulping down the liquor or passing it to friends in the crowd who could not get close enough to help themselves. As the clothing stores were looted men began exchanging their old clothes for those they had seized. This change of apparel was made in the street, lighted almost to noonday brightness by the flames from half a hundred burning buildings.

Once the rioters were frightened when a special train slowed down as it approached the burning buildings, "a shout the militia is coming," caused a pause. But when it was seen the train did not stop, the orgie went on.

By this time so much property had been destroyed and the mob had become so inflated, that the better citizens of the town had fled.

Many families came to Youngstown, and others took street cars to communities farther away, as the conviction was growing that the disorder would sweep over Youngstown, nothing could save the city. Finally a dozen or more citizens, led by Oscar Diser, city solicitor of East Youngstown, and former member of the Ohio legislature, gathered at the police station and pleaded with police and other city officials to attack the rioters. It was almost midnight before a force of some forty armed men gathered in Wilson avenue. Then with Diser leading them they moved down the street. Only a block away the rioters were leading the mob in the block and the citizens fired over their heads. They broke and ran, but finding no one had been killed they turned and sent shot after shot toward the posse. No one was hurt and the posse fired again. This time half a dozen or more rioters went down and the mob tore down the street. The panic gathered strength, and scores of men, their pockets bulging with loot stumbled over each other in a mad rush to get away from the posse.

The posse followed closely, and wherever possible chased the rioters into side streets, men being detached from among the citizens to round them up. In half an hour Wilson avenue had been almost cleared of the mob, but small squads were scattered about the hillside. As fast as possible these men were driven by main force to the police station and automobiles took them to Youngstown. Some were taken to the Mahoning county jail and others to the city prison. By 5 o'clock this morning more than a hundred had been rounded up and brought here while the little police station in East Youngstown was filled to overflowing. The majority of the men taken were armed and many of them were under the influence of liquor they had stolen.

Clearing the streets gave the Youngstown fire department an opportunity to get into East Youngstown, and men and equipment made the run of three miles as quickly as possible. Water was thrown on the ruins the rest of the night. By day-break the walls of many of the brick buildings burned began to fall, and the principal streets were roped off and sightseers excluded.

What became of the mob when it fled before the bullets of the posse has not yet been determined, although it is known that hundreds of them streamed along country roads leading out of East Youngstown, while many others made their way into Youngstown. At 4 o'clock it was reported that the mob was forming again on the hills back of the village determined to attack again and the posse, which had been helping the firemen, was reassembled, this time with reinforcements, and guards were set until the soldiers could arrive.

General Speaks had been in communication during the night with Governor Willis at Columbus, and anxiously awaited the coming of the troops at daybreak. The troop trains came without any definite announcement to the public and not until persons passing along Front street saw the long trains stretched out along the tracks did they realize that the military had taken the situation in hand.

MEDIATION
Of Youngstown Strike Through Industrial Commission Suggested.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, Jan. 8.—Possible mediation of the Youngstown strikers' demands through the medium of the state industrial commission, was considered today at a meeting of that commission. No request for the good offices of state industrial authorities had been received from either the strikers or the companies affected. It was explained, but the commission has authority to take the initiative in trying to settle industrial wage disputes.

Fred C. Croxton, chief of the bureau of statistics and free employment agencies, would be sent to Youngstown to confer with the strikers and company officials if the commission decided on such a course. He has displayed a prominent part in harmonizing a number of wage disputes in Ohio in the last two years.

Jump from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water
Tells why everyone should drink hot water each morning before breakfast.

Why is man and woman, half the time, feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headachy, dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we all would practice inside-bathing, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anaemic-looking souls with pasty, muddy complexions we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out, else it ferments and forms ptomaine-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleaning, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Millions of people who had their turn at constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, nervous days and sleepless nights have become real cranks about the morning inside-bath. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will not cost much at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone, its cleansing, sweetening and freshening effect upon the system.

Newark High's Basketball Season Opens With Victory Over McConnelville Five

McConnelville high school's first appearance in an athletic event in Newark resulted disastrously for the visitors, the Newark basketball five defeating the Macks by a score of 41 to 7. It was the first defeat on the basketball floor for the Morgan county athletes since the 1914 season, the team having gone through last winter without a defeat. In that time the team made a record by defeating Marietta high in a close game.

Friday night McConnelville made a good showing in the first half, holding Newark to 14 points. This half was hotly contested and the fact that the visitors piled up 7 points indicated that it was possible for them to come back strong and turn the defeat into victory.

But they failed to come back. In the second half, the Newark athletes kept so closely to the Mack men that they found it impossible to score a point. In this period Rawlings and Jones piled up a large number of field goals.

True to advance notices the Newark boys showed speed. The passing was clever throughout the game.

As a preliminary, the Freshmen and Sophomores staged a game that required three minutes overtime to finish, the lower classmen finally winning by a score of 6 to 4.

The lineup:

Newark (4) McConnelville (7)

Rawlings f. Wertz, f. Pennell-Harkness rf. Jones-Simms c. Dingey c. McLaughlin lg. McElfresh-Leggett lg. Thorp rg. Simerel rg.

Summary—Field goals, Rawlings 8, Jones 7, Mayer 2, McLaughlin 2, Wertz, Dingey, McElfresh. Foul goals, Rawlings 3, Wertz 1, Referee, Carl Reinhold. Time of halves, 20 minutes.

DUBLIN GIANT FALLS 4 TIMES THEN GIVES UP

(Associated Press Telegram)

New York, Jan. 8.—Frank Moran of Pittsburgh knocked out Jim Coffey, the Dublin giant, in the ninth round of their ten round match at Madison Square Garden last night.

This was Moran's second victory over Coffey in 12 weeks, the first fight ending in three rounds. Last night, however, Coffey showed much improvement and it was not until the eighth round that Moran's terrific smashes showed any effect.

Coffey was knocked down four times in the ninth round, in each instance remaining on the mat for nine seconds. The last time Moran almost drove him through the ropes but he managed to get up within the time. His seconds, realizing that he was hopelessly beaten, threw a sponge into the ring to avoid a complete knockout.

During the first seven rounds Coffey was complete master of the situation and it looked as if he would win on points. Moran tried vainly to land on him but missed many times and in each instance Coffey punished him severely with heavy uppercuts. When Moran finally cut loose in the eighth it was all his way. The weights were: Coffey 205 1-2 and Moran 196 1-2.

DENISON WINS CLOSE CONTEST FROM WITTENBERG

Granville, Jan. 8.—Denison's "Big Red" quintet outpassed Wittenberg for a paltry 35 to 33 victory here last night in the inaugural game of the conference season. The first half ended with Denison leading 21 to 14. Guarding was close and play progressed at a furious pace throughout. Wittenberg excelled in guarding around the danger zone, while Denison was able to limp ahead for a two-point win due to superior pass work.

After Livingston's five had passed around Wittenberg for a 21 to 14 lead in the first half, the Springfield team held a revival meeting. Right Guard Netts, who played a remarkably good game for the visitors, converted two shots into field goals. Thiele, Lang and Ladd goaled for Denison, while Passavant counted two fielders and Goehring one, making the total 27 to 25 for Denison. A pair of foul goals by Netts and Passavant then gave Wittenberg a two-point lead.

Goehring boosted the total to 31 to 27 by a basket. Fine goal shooting was displayed by the visitors. Jenkins of Denison scored two fouls. Then Forward Lang tied the score at 31 all with a thrilling under-basket toss. Then Both teams spurted. Denison gained a point on a foul goal. Wittenberg took the lead 33 to 32 as McNally tossed a foul with a minute to play. Jenkins won the game with a field goal on a shot from the foul line. Lineup:

Denison Wittenberg.

Lang, f. Passavant, f. Jenkins, c. McNally, c. Ladd, l. g. Bechtie, l. g. Stankard, Meredith, r. g. Netts, r. g.

Referee—Mr. Hamilton, Notre Dame. Time of halves—20 minutes. Field goals—Lang, 6; Jenkins, 2; Thiele, 2; Ladd, 3; Passavant, 7; Goehring, 3; McNally, Netts, 3. Foul goals—Jenkins, 9; Bechtie, 5.

"Nothing is so bad that it couldn't be worse," quoted the Wise Guy. "Yes," agreed the Simple Mug, "even the heppened husband ought to be glad he isn't a Mormon."

Wigg—"Even a bad man can follow a good example?" Wagg—"Yes, good men are scarce, and bad ones can make themselves scarce."

MANSFIELD HIGH WALLOPS BOYS FROM DELAWARE

Mansfield, Jan. 8.—Mansfield High simply toyed with Delaware here last night and won easily, 58 to 17. Last season's scholastic champions showed lack of practice and were outclassed at every stage of the game. Mansfield made no special effort to score in the last half, but simply passed the ball around Delaware. Murphy and Hosler starred for Mansfield.

CAPITAL U. IS LOSER IN GAME AT MARIETTA

Capital City University which lost last night to the Marietta college team by a score of 41 to 26, is scheduled to play Denison at Granville tonight. Denison, elated over their victory in the Wittenberg game, will go after Capital University rough shod.

NO CHANGES ARE CONTEMPLATED IN O. L. & P. OFFICE

No changes in the local office force of the Ohio Light and Power company are contemplated following the transfer of Manager H. L. Montgomery to the Atlantic City plant of the American Gas and Electric company. Mr. Montgomery stated that so far as he knew the present force would be unchanged.

Mr. Montgomery took charge of the Newark plant at a time when the company contemplated enlargements and extensions. He assisted in perfecting the plans for the construction of the new $350,000 power plant here which is now furnishing current for Newark, Lancaster and New Lexington.

Under his management the company's business here has been greatly increased. He has organized an excellent office force here and only recently the company occupied a new suite of offices in Third street, which was remodeled and equipped for the particular convenience of the organization.

Mr. Montgomery today expressed his regret that he was to leave Newark. "I have made many good friends here," said Mr. Montgomery, "and I have been delighted with the treatment accorded me by Newark people."

He probably will leave early next week soon after Mr. Espes, the new manager, takes charge of the business here.

The Real Thing.

Fred, aged three, had been a naughty boy, and his mother had punished him. He felt very much hurt and complained to his auntie about mamma's spanking him. Auntie said, "It is not you that mamma spans, but a little devil inside of you who makes you do naughty things." After sitting very still for five minutes he said, "It beats all how it hurts me when that devil gets spanked!"—Delineator.

Newark Booster Clubs Are Being Organized in Number of Ohio Cities

A committee from the local aerie of Eagles met the state officers of that organization at Springfield a few days ago and selected June 18 to 22 as the date of the state convention, which will be held in this city.

The coming of the convention to this city next summer means that thousands of visitors will be entertained daily and that thousands of dollars will be left in Newark by the visitors.

A splendid program is being prepared by the committee in charge and it will include parades, fireworks, decorations, contests, in fact the Eagles are known as being an organization that never leaves things undone and the Newark boys will show the visitors that the Licking county capital can keep abreast of the times with her larger sister cities in the state.

While in Springfield a Newark boosters' club was organized by Champion aerie of that city. There are 200 members, all of whom are enthusiastic and declare they are going to make the biggest and best showing of all the Ohio aerics. The club will go uniformed with fifty Palm Beach suits, straw sailor hats and white canvas shoes.

Secretary Brown of the Springfield aerie has charge of the Newark boosters' club, the members of which pay in $1 per week and when the first week in June arrives he promises a big "surprise" in the way of interest. Each member of the club will have a suit made to his own measurement. Secretary Brown states in addressing the members of the club, "Convention time is vacation time for the many thousands who will journey across Ohio to participate in the big Eagle conclave at Newark. It will be outing time, recreation time and an event to be recalled and remembered with pleasure in years to come."

Other Newark boosters' clubs are being organized in many Ohio cities, and this will assist materially in swelling the big crowd at the convention here next summer.

Legend of the Pearl.

The ancient inhabitants of India had a very pretty superstition concerning the origin of pearls. They believed that at certain seasons Buddha showed dewdrops upon the world, which the oyster, floating on the waters to breathe, received and held until they hardened and became pearls.

ESTABLISHED IN 1820

Entered as Second Class Matter March 10, 1882, at the postoffice at Newark, Ohio, under Act of March 4, 1879.

The Lookers.

A big problem for the merchants is how to deal with people who walk through their stores in an aimless way looking for goods, but with no definite purpose as to buying.

The story is told of a clerk who was once exasperated by a woman who was looking for baskets. He pulled down all but two on the top of a long shelf.

The woman finally turned away in an undecided manner.

"Don't believe I'll take any today. I only came in to look for a friend," she replied.

"Madam" replied the clerk, "if you think your friend is in either one of those two baskets up there I will look in them."

Every merchant knows that type of shopper. The best way to deal with them is to describe good, definitely to the public by good advertising. Then they start out with a more positive purpose to buy, they go direct to the man whose notice interested them, and usually buy without shopping further.

Judge Cyrus Newby, of Hillsboro who is serving his fifth term on the common pleas bench, and who is among the best known jurists of Southern Ohio, has announced his candidacy for the supreme bench. Judge Newby was born in Highland county Ohio, in 1855, attended the country schools and at the age of seventeen entered the National Normal University at Lebanon, Ohio. He was admitted to the bar in 1876.

The new State Board of Agriculture for 1915, 1916, and 1917, spent $59,123.41 in traveling expenses. This is out of an annual appropriation of $111,260 for the fiscal year. Of the amount spent in the same six-months period there is charged to the board directly, and not to any of the sub-departments, the sum of $15,231.87. It is to be remembered that the board serves without pay but at this rate the members of the old commission could have been paid an annual salary in excess of $7,000 each and still saved money for the state.

From the Piqua Leader Dispatch: "Persons who find their taxes higher this year than last must remember that the rate is $1.60 on every thousand in advance of what it was last year. The higher rate was necessary to provide the required revenue as the duplicate shrunk about $700,000, in the county." It might have added enlightenment to the situation had the editor pointed out the fact that Willis' patronage dispenser for central western Ohio is a resident of Piqua and the Republican dictator of Miami county.

The British Crisis.

(Pittsburgh Dispatch.) In the somewhat doubtful event of the conscription bill introduced by British Premier Asquith being approved by parliament, the troubles of the Government will have just begun. There will remain the enforcement of the measure. The powerful trades unions, as represented in the Labor Congress, have thrown down the gauntlet. The members of the Labor party in the House have given their defiance and those members who are in the Cabinet are likely to be called on to resign their posts forthwith. True, neither the Labor Congress nor the members of the Labor party in Parliament are unanimous in opposition to the Government measure, but the opposition is decided enough to give the Premier and his colleagues serious concern and indicate that attempts to carry out the provisions of the bill, if it passes, may lead to grave consequences.

Minister of Munitions Lloyd George, after appeals that probably were unique, gained labor's support toward turning out supplies, but the consent of labor to conscription is a horse of another color. The Government is confronted at the outset with dissension among its members and supporters sufficient to cause alarm and warrant one of the Cabinet saying the Premier might step down and out. It faces the opposition of most of the Irish membership, despite the fact that Ireland is exempted from the compulsory service. But the great test comes in the stand of the people who toil.

While further appeals and arguments may lead to eleventh hour compromise, the attitude of the majority of the labor representatives does not give much hope. The leader of the party, Arthur Henderson, who holds the office of President of the Board of Education in the Cabinet, has announced his allegiance to the Government and promises to resign his seat and go before his constituents for their decision. There are indications that the other Labor members of the Government, William Bruce, Under Secretary for Home Affairs, and George H. Roberts, Lord Commissioner of the Treasury, may answer the party call to quit posts.

Perhaps the best explanation of labor's attitude is the point made by the leaders that with conscription labor would lose its strongest weapon, the right to stop work, when the workers could be mobilized and sent back to work under military direction. How grave is the situation may be judged from the statement of President Bellamy of the Railway Men's Union that the conscription bill would reuse such passion that even the King's Government might not be able to stand against it," and the words of Secretary Robert Williams of the National Transport Workers' Federation, a day or two ago: "We tasted the fruits of militarism when we found soldiers doing the dockers' work at Dundee. We are prepared to risk the bullet or the bayonet leveled at us rather than submit."

The Factory Peril.

(Insurance Press.) For a non-combatant to get within the firing line of the bloody European war is considered an impossibility. There is a reason—it is a dangerous place; one's life would be in jeopardy. Here in New York are more than 1,000,000 persons, working every day, in places almost as dangerous as the firing line of Europe. They go and come with no thought of danger, merely because they have thus far escaped death and injury. Yet a tragedy might be enacted at any moment. Some time ago the cloak, suit and skirt industries of New York engaged Dr. George M. Price to inspect the fire hazards of the many buildings devoted to these manufacturing interests. Dr. Price has made his report, in which he says that out of 928 buildings, 30 were found to be perfectly safe. It might require a mathematician to figure out how much better chance one of the employees of these structures has of escaping death than he would have on the firing line.

Winter Warfare in Europe.

(New York Evening Post) Last winter saw some of the heaviest fighting of the war, and there is every reason for believing that the next two months will be far from quiet. The beginning of a Russian offensive is undoubtedly paralleled by preparations on the allied line in the west, to take advantage of a Russian success or to create a diversion in case the Russians fail. Such co-operation was in evidence a year ago. It is far more likely to appear today, when so much has been done to bring about closer touch between the allies. What the latter will hope is that the outcome of this winter's fighting will not be like last winter's. Just a year ago today the Russians were in virtually complete possession of Bukovina. Before the end of February they had been driven out. In the north General Von Hindenburg executed, during February, his second great Mazurian drive, ending in the definite expulsion of the Russians from East Prussia. In the west the French made a sharp thrust north of the Aisne in the vicinity of Soissons, which ended in a severe defeat and their retreat to the south bank of the river. The one auspicious event for the allies was the battle of the North Sea and the sinking of the Blucher, January 24, on which day the probability of the German main fleet ever coming out to give battle became remote.

LABOR NEWS.

The passing of the old year marks the year 1915 as the most successful of any in the history of the Trades and Labor Assembly, in the point of business transacted and good work accomplished. Everything is running smoothly, with prospects indicating better times ahead. New officers were elected at the last meeting and will be installed Sunday, January 9th, when there will be held a general home-coming and smoker after adjournment. Press Committee.

NO WAR ORDERS BEHIND THIS BUSINESS BOOM

No one would go so far as to charge that big war orders are responsible for the increased capacity of the Burke Golf Shaft company's plant here. Golf sticks, etc., are not used to any great extent on the battlefields of Europe.

Nevertheless, this company is just completing a three-story building which will double its producing capacity in the next year and more than that the business is in sight to reach this mark.

The Burke Golf Shaft company is one of the city's infant concerns but it is a lusty infant and is growing so rapidly that the officers are kept busy providing quarters large enough for it.

William Burke, head of the company, left today for Philadelphia, New York, Boston and Springfield, Mass., on business for the company. He was accompanied by Mrs. Burke. They will be absent for a week or ten days.

COL. "BOB" DOLD OF THE FAMOUS BUCKEYE BAND

Herewith is presented the picture of Col. Robert Dold, business manager of the famous Buckeye Band, and who is known to almost every resident of this city, on account of the interest he has always taken in band affairs.

Bob Dold learned to play a horn shortly after coming to this city as a little German lad a number of years ago. From that time on the city was always assured a band for Bob saw to it that it was maintained even though expenses had to be paid out of his own pocket on more than one occasion. The Buckeye Band in the old days had a reputation all Business Manager Buckeye Band. over Ohio as one of the best musical organizations in the state and their services were in constant demand in various Ohio cities, and they accompanied many local delegations to conventions and fraternal meetings. Through Mr. Dold's hustling abilities and love of music the band was reorganized several years ago after having been dormant for some time, and since then interest has revived and the present Buckeye band membership is composed of the city's best musicians. This summer handsome uniforms were purchased by popular subscription for the band boys. The band for the past two or three seasons has been giving free open air concerts for the benefit of the public and thousands of Newark citizens have been entertained by their delightful program of varied selections. Several weeks ago the band boys met and ordered a drum major's uniform for Manager Dold and one evening presented it to him after regular practice. The genial Robert was taken by surprise but accepted the same and is now the major-domo of the Buckeye organization. He will next have his band out on dress parade when he leads that organization with his baton in the Elk minstrel parade on Monday noon, February 14.

Rippling Rhymes

Selfishness. Jim Kickshaw has a touring car, in which he journeys near and far. There's room for seven in the same, and Jim might bring to many a dame who seldom has a chance to ride, pure happiness ten cubits wide. But Jim would rather ride alone, than take some poor old gent or crone. He'd take a banker or some skate who's made a pile in real estate; he'd load his car with daisies fair, and still insist there's room to spare. He'd gladly take a joyous crew, to whom such rides are nothing new. But there are men with spavined limbs, and poor old dames with worn-out limbs; and crippled kids who sit and sigh, as gorgeous cars go whizzing by; and mothers, tired until their hearts beat yearn for rides in choo-choo carts; and maiden aunts who'd trade their hair for three long breaths of country air. But these will never ride with Jim; they're poor, and don't appeal to him; the men don't wear their whiskers straight, the women's hats are out of date, the kids have seedy pinafores, from rolling round on unwashed floors. There's nothing in it, any way; you haul the poor for half a day, and all you get for it is thanks; they have no assets in the banks. WALT MASON.

ANNIVERSARY OF PASTORATE OF W. D. WARD

Next Sunday, at the Central Church of Christ, will mark the completion of the sixth, and the beginning of the seventh, year of the pastorate of the present minister, Walter D. Ward. The anniversary sermon will be preached in the morning. The subject will be: "The Hand of God in His Church." At this service, also, the officers recently elected will be set apart to their respective duties by prayer. As always on Sunday evenings, the evening worship will be evangelistic in aim and spirit, to life. In many respects, the past six years of the pastorate referred to have been very happy and fruitful. When the present minister began his work in Newark, the church was cumbered with a debt of nearly $7,000, and the building was in great need of repair. There were then ten churches of Disciples of Christ in Licking county with no co-operative work being carried on by them. During the period of six years just completed, the debt on the property has been paid and the mortgage burned. Repairs costing about $12,000, have been made on the building and churches of the county have been drawn together by means of a County Union and enlisted in definite service for others; and recently two more congregations have been organized, and another in the County. "The Old Stone Church," has been re-organized.

During this time, the minister has made 6300 actual, pastoral visits, received 860 people into the church, officiated at 223 funerals and 233 weddings. There are additions to the church almost every Sunday. Each sermon is preached with the exception that some one in the audience will accept Christ and confess Him before men. It is the earnest wish of the minister that every member of the church, as far as possible will be present Sunday morning, January 9th, in recognition of the event described above. Be sure to come at 9:15, and remain through the combined service, consisting of Bible study and morning worship. A cordial invitation is extended to all of the friends of the church to be present, as well.

He—What's her social status? She (grimly)—Standing room only.—Judge.

Society

Mrs. J. W. Mercer was hostess to the members of the Opportunity club on Thursday evening at her home in Church street. The hours were spent in crocheting after which a delicious luncheon was served the members following guests: Mrs. Frank Mercer, Mrs. Randall and Mrs. Snider Zanesville. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Bradley in Newey avenue on January 20.

A very pretty thimble party was given by Mrs. Benjamin Hendricks on Thursday afternoon at her home in Central avenue. The rooms were arranged with cut flowers and about thirty guests were present. Among them was Mrs. Elmer Brown, (Mary Morah) of Asheville, N. C.

Miss Katherine Simonds will begin the second term of dancing at Assembly Hall on Monday afternoon. Miss Simonds who teaches dancing at the Columbus School for Girls has had a large children's class during the last term.

The Members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club will be entertained on the club day of next week at the home of Mrs. W. C. Miller in Hudson avenue.

Dr. J. T. Lewis entertained a number of his friends last evening with a fish fry at his apartments in the Jetlow in West Locust street. Although it is known that the doctor is an expert angler the fish were not caught by him but were shipped to him by a friend in St. Louis, they being of the pompano variety, a delicious and toothsome fish caught in the Gulf of Mexico. The doctor prepared the entire menu, being skilled in the art of cookery, and the cuisine was highly complimented by the guests. Dr. Frederick Sanders of Wheeling, an old class mate of Dr. Lewis, was an out-of-town guest.

Three score years and ten, is mentioned as the allotted life of man, this is surely a ripe old age, but when a man is permitted to pass the four score year age it surely denotes that he has been kindly dealt with by an all wise providence. The above lines apply to one of Newark's best known German citizens, Mr. Melchor Weller, of 137 South Fifth street, who on Thursday, January 6, celebrated his passage of the eighty-second mile stone of his life. Mr. Weller and his daughter Emma quietly spent the day at home until about 5 p. m. when a few friends began to drop in upon them extending congratulations for the day.

Mr. Weller was born in Bavaria, Germany, Jan. 6, 1834. Came to America in 1853; came to Licking county the same year. In 1861 he enlisted in Co. E, 76th Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry and served until 1865 when he was mustered out of service with the regiment. Mr. Weller is a member of Union Veteran Legion No. 31 of Newark. One of the first of the guests to arrive was Captain John Hiser also an Octogonarian and fellow comrade of Co. E of the 76th. Others were Mrs. John Hiser, daughter and little grand daughter, Mrs. Mary Smith of Columbia street, Mrs. George Donjon, Samuel Madara and Cliff Rosebrough. One or two other comrades of Mr. Weller were not able to be present owing to extra cold or sickness. At 6 o'clock a splendid supper was served to Mr. Weller and his guests by his daughter Emma, but the surprises of the evening were when the son, Mr. John Weller of Granville street this city and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fossbaugh who are Mr. Weller's son-in-law and daughter of Columbus, arrived and extended their congratulations to their aged father.

The evening was spent in pleasant conversation and very beautiful musical selections on an Edison Grand Phonograph brought and operated by Mrs. Mary Smith an old family friend.

The old boys enjoyed some good smokes and at a late hour a beautiful birthday cake, bearing brightly burning candles, baked especially for and presented to Mr. Weller by Mrs. Douson, was cut and served to the guests with ice cream. All bid their host of the evening good night after wishing Mr. Weller many happy returns of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Baird of Kibler avenue, delightfully entertained a number of their friends on Friday evening at their home. The hours were devoted to euchre and four tables were arranged for the players. A three course luncheon was served.

The Harmonious Embroidery club will meet Tuesday, Jan. 11, with Mrs. S. H. Fleming, in Hazelwood addition.

The Monday Talks meeting for next week will be held at the Trinity parish house, when interesting stereopticon views of Russia will illustrate a paper on Russia.

Mrs. Leland Baxter will entertain the members of the Brightening Circle of The King's Daughters at her home in North Sixth street, on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus will entertain with a formal dancing party and dinner at Assembly hall on Washington's Birthday, February 22. It is customary for the fourth degree knights to hold an annual ball and the date for this year has just been arranged.

Mr. Waite W. Carlisle entertained his dancing club last evening at his home in Pearl street, it being a stag affair. The time was spent in music and dancing and at a late hour refreshments were served. All present had a royal good time and voted Mr. Carlisle an excellent entertainer.

AMENDMENT

GIVING SUFFRAGE TO WOMEN REPORTED FAVORABLY TO U. S. SENATE.

"Neither Logically Nor Justly Can Suffrage be Limited to One-half the People."

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Jan. 8.—The Susan B. Anthony amendment providing for woman suffrage was reported favorably today to the senate by the suffrage committee. After pointing out that the government of the United States is one of delegated powers, the report says:

"Manhood suffrage has been from time to time extended. Every enlargement of the franchise has been a natural and logical development of the principle of popular sovereignty. We may assume that universal male suffrage is an established factor in our system of government."

"In our opinion every argument and every principle upon which Universal manhood suffrage rests demands the extension of its privileges and responsibilities to women. "Neither logically nor justly, therefore can unlimited suffrage be recognized as an essential to our republican form of government, and its existence at the same time be limited to one half of the people, arbitrarily segregated from the other half by the accident of sex."

OHIO CHAMPIONSHIP.

Several hundred boxing fans in Newark are making preparations to go to Columbus on next Monday night to witness the 12-round go between Johnny Griffith of Akron and Bryan Downey, of Columbus. The mill promises to be one of the best cards staged at the Coliseum in several months and will settle all disputes pertaining to the lightweight championship of Ohio.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Jan. 8.—The senate unanimously passed a bill permitting the Ohio-West Virginia Bridge Company to construct a bridge across the Ohio river at Steubenville.

CANDIDACY OF HON. W. D. FULTON.

(Putnam County Sentinel.) Licking county Democrats will urge the nomination of their fellow citizen, Hon. W. D. Fulton, for secretary of state. Mr. Fulton rendered good service to his party as a member of the Ohio legislature. He was one of the strong leaders in the house of representatives and has a wide personal acquaintance in Ohio. Mr. Fulton is an effective public speaker and is well fitted to ably campaign the cause of Democracy in Ohio.

Odd Cures For Seasickness.

Among curious remedies for seasickness is that which is popular among the mariners in the Levant—the daily swallowing of iron rust, which is obtained by the simple process of scraping it off the anchor or anchor chain. But this is only part of the treatment, for a small pouch containing roasted salt and flowers of thyme must be tied upon the abdomen as firmly as can be borne, this being considered to counteract the effect of the internal disturbance caused by the rolling of the vessel. Known to the ancient Greeks as "thyrian salt," the preparation has at least the authority of old age, while its efficacy is not without modern testimony. And the belt is better than salt and faith better than the belt.

Took Away the Sting.

A pleasant retort was that given by Admiral Marsden at a dinner in Malta several years ago. It was given on the Fourth of July by him to the American officers on a man-of-war, and all the English officers in the harbor were guests. They were no better bred than many Englishmen of that day, for when the regular toast, "The day we celebrate," was read, they set down their glasses untasted. The venerable host added gently, "The day, gentlemen, when England celebrates the coming of age of her eldest daughter." Every face cleared, and the toast was drunk with hearty cheers. Will never find its way to the mark so swiftly as when aimed with kindness and good will.

Mark Twain as "Attraction."

A girl who was a stranger to Mark Twain once found her way into his Bermuda home with the hope of getting a sight of the author. She came suddenly in contact with him and frankly explained her errand. "Have you seen the crystal cave yet," he asked, "or the aquarium?" "No, I came to see you first," she answered.

"Well, you shouldn't have seen me first," he answered. "I run in opposition to the crystal and the aquarium. But they're not shucks to me. I'm lots better. I give them their money's worth. But you should see them. Then you'll appreciate me."

This was said in his most earnest drawl and with only a sparkle of humor in his keen blue eyes.

Investment Bargains.

The investor who picks up desirable property when everybody is selling and no one buying will have to wait only a reasonable time to secure his reward. I recall when real estate in several large cities was a drug on the market. Everybody seemed anxious to sell and no one to buy, but the buyers in those periods have realized enormous profits, far greater than one can get in the Stock Exchange.

The man who has money, even if it is but a small amount, can always turn it over to advantage if he will wait for the opportunity. Don't go with the crowd when every one is wild to buy something, but quietly abide an opportunity when everybody is anxious to unload and buyers are few. At such a time the bargain counter opens. —Leslie's.

BURGLARS ENTER TWO STORES ON PUBLIC SQUARE

Burglars operated in two stores on the square last night, forcing an entrance to the Sparta confectionery store and George Hermann's clothing store. They got less than $5 for their trouble but at the Sparta considerable damage was done to the cash register.

At the Hermann store, nothing was taken, according to the report made when the police investigated the case.

In the candy store change amounting to about $5 was taken from the register. One of the drawers in the cabinet register was left open. This was rifled of its contents and another drawer was pried open and the cash taken. The register was damaged.

There is no clue left by the burglars.

Life in New York.

In commenting on the "spenders" of the Great White Way a writer in the American Magazine asks if the improvident habits of the average metropolitan are due to a shorter life.

"The grocer on the corner told my wife that he didn't try to save anything because 'we all die before we are sixty, anyway. * * * What's the use?' he said. 'You never see many old people around. I won't live to be old, and neither will you.'"

"That last statement stuck in my mind. It is a fact that in the streets of New York you see few people past sixty. The actual dangers connected with street traffic must keep the old indoors to a certain extent, or else it drives them away to the little towns. Anyway, I am sure you see a smaller proportion of old people in great cities than you see in small towns."

"Does this fact influence a good many, like the grocer, to spend all and to save nothing because of an unconsciously formed opinion that almost everybody works and dies in the harness before sixty? Is this one reason why city people are more improvident and extravagant than country people?"

Mystery of a Diplomat.

Of disappearances most mysterious was the case of Benjamin Bathurst, who vanished Nov. 25, 1860, when engaged on a secret mission for the foreign office. Vienna was the young diplomat's objective, and, with his friend and valet, in a post chaise, Perleberg, a small post town in north Germany, had been reached. Hero Bathurst supped and slept, awaiting the arrival of fresh horses. Waking, he asked where the horses ready and passed out of the door to make inquiries. Eight people saw him go out, but none ever set eyes on him again.

Various theories were set afoot—Napoleon's spies, robbers, illness. In 1912 in the forest near Perleberg a skeleton was discovered with a hole in the skull as from a heavy blunt instrument. Was it that of the English lord, as Perleberg people surmised?

LOAN ASSOCIATION ELECTED OFFICERS

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Citizens Building & Loan Association was held last night at the association's office in South Third street and the following members were elected to serve on the board of directors for a period of three years: Messrs. Joseph Schrier, C. V. Holtz, George Kenney and Frederic Reese. The hold-over members of the board are Julius J. D. McNamara, president; Ashley Bishop, Herbert Harris, Charles O'Bannon and George Fromholtz. Wm. H. Broome is secretary of the association.

A dividend of three per cent was declared for the last six months of 1915. Officials of the association stated that it was in a flourishing condition, in fact that its business was in a better condition than ever, partly due to the fact that times were a great deal more prosperous and that the company had an abundance of funds and was being kept busy paying out dividends to the stockholders. Secretary Broome predicted a largely increased volume of business for the present year.

THE SICK

Word was received yesterday of the illness of Mrs. E. Iris McElwain of Amistad, New Mexico. Both Mr. and Mrs. McElwain were former residents of Newark.

E. V. Renfrew, insurance man is ill with grippe at his home in Granville street.

Mayor Bigbee received a letter this morning from Wallace B. Blanks, cashier of the American Bank & Trust Co. of Petersburg, Va., advising him that a picture of the famous "Battle of the Crater" had been sent to him.

The mayor became acquainted with Mr. Blanks when Mr. Bigbee and William Holler of this city visited in Virginia in November. He offered to send the Newark veterans a picture of this point of interest near Petersburg where the federal troops exploded a big mine under the rebel line and attempted to penetrate the defense at the point of explosion. A terrible slaughter was the result.

In Mr. Blanks' letter he says, "I am glad to furnish you with this memento of days that are no more except in memory which has been softened by time and mellowed by a better understanding between friends."

Your Boys and Girls

Do not think that your little one can be strong by merely getting plenty of sleep and fresh air. He needs to get plenty of exercise, indoors and out. If you are busy with your housework and want to guard your child against harm, make him a creeping pen.

It is merely a fence made in four sections eighteen inches high and four feet long. They are hinged at three corners and latched at the fourth. The pen can be covered with a netting and the floor may be an old blanket to keep the baby from getting bumped.

Every Day Etiquette

"I wish to announce my engagement by a luncheon to a few girls. Shall I have to send formal invitations?" asked Gladys.

"A written invitation is not necessary but a little informal note to each one would be nice and perfectly proper," replied her aunt.

Mr. Burgins—"It is hard to say two masters." Mrs. Burgins—"harder to master two servants."

K. O. P. Roland Lodge.
The installation meeting on Tuesday evening was a dandy. A large crowd was out and enthusiasm prevailed. All the officers were present and were duly installed by Past Chancellor Hawkins. The report of the trustees and auditing committee gave evidence that everything is going along in fine style. Just to start the new year right eight applications were turned in and legally acted upon. The prize for bringing in the most applications the last term were awarded Bros. C. E. Root and John J. Smith. The Prize was announced for next Tuesday.

The supper served by the entertainment committee at the close of the lodge session was thoroughly enjoyed by all. It was complete in every detail. Grand Chancellor-elect George L. The regular meeting of Newark Lodge No. 13, K. of P. convened at 7:00 o'clock Thursday evening with a large crowd in attendance and the routine business was disposed of with a rush in order to give the members a chance to enjoy the festivities in the banquet hall.

The sick members are improving as some were declared out of care of the lodge.

Two new applications were received and referred to the proper committees. One application by transfer card was voted upon and elected to membership in No. 13 which by the way brings the number of Knights in Old 13 up to the 500 mark which all the members have been working for for the last year and still we have several applications that are in process of the different committees that will be ready for the ranks in the near future.

After the regular session in the lodge room that members adjourned to the large banquet room where the "Blues" had prepared a sumptuous spread for the entertainment of the "ladies" and the ladies, including a fine program of music, songs and recitations which were enjoyed by all who were there and the committee in charge are to be commended on the evening's entertainment.

On Monday evening, January 17th, Brother B. F. McDonald will deliver his famous address, entitled "Moonshine" which he used on the Flatbush chautauqua platform last season and it is claimed to be one of the best lectures that ever was heard on that platform. The address will be given in the large assembly hall of the K. of P. Temple and will be open to the public at 25c admission. Tickets are now on sale by the different members of the committee in charge.

Next Thursday evening the officers for the coming term will be installed and the Page rank will be conferred upon a class of candidates. Lodge will convene at 7:00 o'clock and get in on the subject now under discussion. Visiting Patriarchs always welcome.

Brothers that were not present missed a great treat, and several of the brothers gave remarks pertaining to Oddfellowship, and next Tuesday evening, January 11, the first degree will be conferred on three candidates and the degree term is urged to be present. Transient brothers welcome.

MACMILLEN CAPTURES $5,000 PRIZE WHEN 16.

FRANCIS MACMILLEN.

Francis Macmillen, the famous violinist, who comes here Wednesday, January 19th, and will appear at the Auditorium under the auspices of the Woman's Music Club, Wednesday, January 19th, went to Europe when he was seven years old. Although he has been before the public for a decade now he has not lost the freshness of youth.

At sixteen he won the first prize at the Brussels Royal Conservatoire. In 1903 he made his debut in London, at St. James Hall, winning from the critic Robin Legge, this judgment:

"I believe that Macmillen will go far farther and stay far longer than any of the other violinists of the present day, because he possesses in a large degree the sublime quality of the right kind of genius; the genius which puts artistry at the top and uses pyrotechnics only as a means to an end and not an end in itself."

The camp will open promptly at 7:20 and after the usual business is transacted, the officers will be installed and after that comes the roll call and then to finish up, out to the banquet room. Enough is said, it is up to you to be present.

U. R. K. P.
Wednesday, January 12 will be the regular assembly of Licking Co. 121. Our inspection will be held on Wednesday, January 26 and every Sir Knight must be present. Major Frank Logan of Zanesville will be the inspector of officers. To make a good showing every Sir Knight must attend the meetings for inspection drills. The next drill will be on Wednesday, January 12. Sword and belt. Be sure and come. Something doing.

Refining Tapioca.

This elegant and delicate starch is the product of a plant that is cultivated very extensively in the Malay peninsula, where its culture is almost entirely in the hands of the Chinese. The tubers of the plant (Manihot utilisima), which weigh on an average from ten to twenty-five pounds, are first scraped and then carefully washed, after which they are reduced to a pulp by being passed between rollers. This pulp is carefully washed and shaken up with abundance of water until the fecula separates and passes through a very fine sieve into a tub placed beneath. The flour so obtained is repeatedly washed and then placed on mats and bleached by exposure to the sun and air. It is finally converted into the pearl tapioca of commerce by being placed in a crude shaped frame covered with canvas. It is slightly moistened and subjected to a rotary motion, by which means it is granulated. It is next dried in the sun and finally over the fire in an iron pan greased with vegetable tallow and is then ready for the market.

"The Pride of the Antilles" a Tom Ferris production in 5 parts, an adaptation from the famous play "A Sword of Honor" starring Tom Ferris and an all star cast produced by the Ferris Feature Film company exclusive producers for the Picture Playhouse Film Co. Inc. This is one of the best pictures ever brought to Newark and is sure to please all who see it. This is a great picture of a seacoast village in which Mr. Ferris plays the part of a fisherman. In connection with this picture a pathetic 2 part Mustang Western drama "The Cactus Blossom" starring popular stars Frank Borzage and Anna Little supported by a superb cast. The performance is continuous from 1:00 to 10:30. Admission 10 cents. Monday and Tuesday comes Denman Thompson in "The Old Homestead," a Paramount picture. Also Paramount News, the world before your eyes.

At the Mazda.
"Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne who are probably known to more motion picture lovers than any other stellar combination on the screen will be seen in "Pennington's Choice," a Metro romantic photo drama. "Pennington's Choice" Mr. Bushman's portrayal of a wealthy New Yorker, who is obliged suddenly to quit a life of leisure and prove his courage and manliness in the Canadian wilderness to win the girl of his heart is one of the best performances he has ever given. Miss Bayne has an equal opportunity to display her fascinating dramatic talent in a role that carries her from the drawing room of her metropolis to the wild life of a care-free hoydenish girl in the woods. There are many intense situations. The fortresses of the northern wilderness and a novel love story is charmingly portrayed. The cast, appearing in support of Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne is exceptionally strong and includes Helen Dunbar, Lester Cuneo and James J. Jeffries. Will appear in this production taking Bushman through a course of boxing lessons. "Pennington's Choice" will be seen at the Mazda Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 11 and 12.

Y W C A NOTES

Are you going? Where? To the Federation banquet, January 14th, at the First Presbyterian church. This is the jolliest annual affair that the industrial clubs indulge in and every member is looking forward to it in eager anticipation. It is one time when the club men meet their advisors, board and committee members and other interested friends. At this time enthusiasm is generated and stored up to last a whole year. The dining room rings with happy laughter, club songs and yells, good fellowship and cheer.

Miss MacCorkle, mother of the Federation will be here to tell them her fond hopes and plans for them for this new year.

This is the program:
Baby's Record.
Toastmistress—E. V. Bowers.
The Arrival—Mae Belmont.
Baby's Mother (Miss MacCorkle)—Mrs. J. B. Jones.
Weight and Measure—Mary Kappes.

Baby's Nurses—Misses Katherine Childs, Mary McKibben, Mary McClure, Ruth Forry, Laura Harris, Jessie Burns.

First Outings—Lena Wilkin.

First Appearance in Public—Oma Martin.

Baby's Nursery—Della Adams.

Mother's Plans for Baby's Future—Miss MacCorkle.

Miss Bergquist, who has been ill at her home in Jamestown, N. Y., will return next week. All gymnasium classes have been in session this week with Mabel Jones and Mrs. Passman instructing. Basket ball class was under the direction of Miss Norpell. The classes have been small, due to the break during holidays. Let's greet Miss Bergquist with full attendance this next week.

A good New Year's resolution: to join and attend regularly one of the excellent Bible classes now in session at the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. J. B. Jones is teaching The Parables of Jesus, on Tuesdays, 7:15 to 8. Mrs. Fred Evans is leading a class in a very definite study of the Bible by subjects which will require really serious study on the part of those who join. And that is the great need today. We are so busy that we have allowed this part of our education and growth to be sadly neglected. Are you teaching that Sunday school class as efficiently as you could if you knew your Bible better? Are you making and keeping your home as beautiful as you could if you knew Jesus' teachings? Are you serving in your community as earnestly and joyously as you would if you knew God's will for each? Why put off longer this real treat to yourself? Join this Saturday night class which meets at 7:15 and closes at 8.

The Y. W. C. A. girls in the Residence Home have a letter from Laura Andrew Sellers now in Akron. She writes that she is very happy in her new home.

The general secretary received last week a beautiful Christmas letter from Mrs. Ella Cross Pritchard now in Cleveland, enclosing a check to be used in making some Y. W. C. A. girls happy. This is the second gift from Mrs. Pritchard to our girls and we appreciate it very much.

We still have a few of the attractive Association calendars. If your friends forgot that you might like one, just remind them that you are disappointed. Come in and get one. Good for a whole year, these are.

The Domestic Science department made and sold about 65 pounds of their famous fruit cake, clearing enough to add some new silverware to their dining room equipment.

Miss Mary Van Horn entertained the members of Research club in the Y. W. C. A. parlors Saturday afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served by cafeteria department, under the direction of Mrs. Pierce.

Once more the Residence Home is full of girls. The Ironon girls who were all home for the holidays have returned and Miss Edna Riley, from Ufa, attending Newark Business college has also come back to us after a long absence. Miss Kate McClain, and other Business college girls, are making her home here. The rooms left vacant by the "new brides" are already taken. Several transients have been turned away this week for lack of rooms.

We need a new building and we need it badly.

Y M C A NOTES

The regular monthly board meeting will be held next Thursday evening, January 13, at 7 o'clock.

All gymnasium classes have had a good attendance this week. Chas. Allen has been in charge of this work. He has been assisted by the leaders.

A basket ball team is being trained to play the Mt. Vernon "Mounts" next Wednesday night at Mt. Vernon. The following men will meet for practice Monday evening: Young, Davis, Orr, Rembold, Woodward, Smucker and Goodwin.

Mr. F. A. Roberts and Samuel Gornely, who lived in the building for a number of weeks while here in connection with the B. and O. R. R. Co., left Monday for Chillicothe where they will be engaged with the same company.

The members and friends should remember the state convention which will be held here February 10th and 11th. This will bring about 300 delegates from other parts of the State. Let us show the visitors every courtesy.

The Junior Bible class, which has not met since before Christmas, will meet again next Tuesday evening for supper and study.

The Educational classes in English for coming Americans will all meet again next Monday evening. Any man wishing to qualify himself for citizenship should join a class. The United States government co-operates with the Association in promoting this work.

Mrs. Laura Mitchell, who was unable to return to the work of the lunch counter after Christmas on account of serious illness of her little niece in Canton, has written that she will be back next Monday.

The following memberships have been added in the past few days: Carl Cunningham, Carl Kaiser, Marvin Bingham, Loren Parfall, Frank Young, George Wiley, J. C. York, Theodor Klecker, Ben Grant, Cecil Meyers, Charles E. Johnson, C. T. Lavendick, Carroll Baker, Glenn O'Hara, Ralph Meyer, Wm. Davis, Myron Seymour, Arthur Jones and Wm. Hillman. Others should make the "Y" their stopping place.

FIRST DOSE ENDS INDIGESTION, HEARTBURN, OR GAS ON STOMACH.

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion, dyspepsia or out-of-order stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking Tonaline Tabs.

People with weak stomachs should take Tonaline Tablets occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, no belching of undigested food, headaches, dizziness or sick stomach; and besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved five minutes after taking Tonaline Tablets.

Go to your druggist and get a $1 box of Tonaline Tablets and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are no more bad nights and miserable days for you. Tonaline tabs freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

Tonaline Tablets cost $1.00 for a 15 days' treatment.

For sale by Hall's drug store.

The most widespread disease in the world

The most widespread disease in the world today is that dread affliction of the teeth called pyorrhea. Nine out of every ten grown persons have it to some extent. You may have it and be unaware of it. Why? Because scientists have proved that the cause of this disease is a germ which inhabits every human mouth, and that thousands have this disease and do not realize it until it reaches the advanced stages of bleeding gums and loose teeth.

Accept the advice dentists everywhere are giving and take special precautions in your daily toilet against this disease. To meet the need for such a daily treatment and to enable everyone to take the necessary precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient form of Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Senreco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Senreco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sental Remedies Co., 507 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Habits of Authors.

I was presented once to a lady who immediately fixed me with an eager eye.

"I am making a study of the habits of authors," she announced. (Here a dreadful sinking of the heart assailed me.) "Kindly tell me at what hour you retire."

"Usually at half past 10," I answered wretchedly.

At that, as I had expected, her eyebrows went up. "The author of 'When All Was Dark,' she informed me, 'sits up all night. She says she cannot sleep until she has savored the dawn.' However, she was kind enough to give me another chance. 'What do you eat?' she asked.

"Three hearty meals a day," I answered.

"Not breakfast?" she pleaded. "Why, St. George Dreamer never takes more than three drops of brandy on a lump of sugar in the morning. Just the sight of a coffee cup will upset his work for a week."

And then she left me, sure, I do not doubt, that no real author could confess to such distressingly normal habits as mine.—Atlantic.

Military Spies.

One of the ingenious ideas of modern war strategy is to utilize artist skill in making a drawing of a fortification without betraying its purpose on the surface. The spy makes a drawing which appears to be an ordinary landscape. If caught with it he might pose with comparative safety as an artist who had been sketching for pleasure and was entirely ignorant of the existence of any fort and its surroundings.

Interpreted according to a secret code, however, the picture reveals to the spy's government a fairly complete plan of a fort. This is indicated by the character and position of details. One kind of tree represents an armored gun turret. A bush is an observation turret. Other forms of trees are gun positions, a couple of gates are entrances to the fort, a piece of fencing is a barbed wire entanglement, lines of bushes are ditches, and so on.—Kansas City Star.

Siamese Earth Eaters.

The Lastians of Siam actually eat and enjoy earth. It has never been discovered where these peculiar people contracted this habit, though it is generally believed that it probably came about in the time of a famine, when there was nothing else to be had.

However, the habit has now got such a hold upon them that old and young, rich and poor alike, indulge freely in its consumption. It is preferred when it has been acquired from the vicinity of waters so that it carries with it a taste of fish. It is made into a pasty substance and smothered into the ground in a hot fire. It can be obtained at markets and at stores and is served at dinners and at big functions of any description. In some parts of the Kongo earth is sold in the shape of apples and oranges and is given out in various colors—yellow, brown, gray and even pink, which is looked upon as a very delectable luxury.

Belgrade.

Belgrade, the capital of the kingdom of Serbia, has gradually, for many years past, been losing its old Turkish aspect, becoming more modern, more European. The history of the city for nearly 1,000 years has been one of continual contests. The walls have disappeared since 1862; the last and finest of the five gates was demolished in 1868, and the citadel is not up to the requirements of modern warfare. The manufactures of Belgrade consist of arms, cutlery, saddlery, silk goods, carpets, etc. The chief buildings in the city are the royal and episcopal palaces, the government houses, the cathedral, barracks, bazaars, national theater and various educational institutions. The population is about 70,000.—Westminster Gazette.

What Interested Her.

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, discussing the divorce evil, on one occasion said: "Love is the best foundation for marriage, of course. But common sense keeps it cool, and cool things, of course, keep the best. But selfishness kills all—and some married people are as selfish as the lady to whom the painter said, 'These lines, alas, tell me that you are destined to wear widow's weeds.' 'Oh, dear me!' said the lady. 'For how long?'"

Roman Rulers.

Three of the greatest rulers Rome ever had were Spanish born—Trajan, Hadrian and Marcus Aurelius. Later occupants of the Caesarian throne born in Iberia were Theodosius and Honorius. Seneca, Martial and Quintilian, famous in Roman letters, also were Spaniards.

Strength of Oysters.

If a man, in proportion, had the strength of an oyster he could lift a locomotive with ease. With the muscles with which an oyster of good size holds its shell closed a weight of thirty-five pounds can be supported. A weight of more than six pounds is required to force apart the shell of a common mussel, and in the Mediterranean a clam exists that will support nearly 500 times its own weight—equivalent to a 150 pound man supporting more than thirty-six tons. These interesting facts have been brought to light by a series of experiments and investigations conducted by Felix Plateau, a Belgian scientist. Dr. Plateau has been measuring at the same time the strength of insects. Harassed to a delicate weighing machine of special construction, the insects were prodded into attempts to escape while weights were added until any forward movement was rendered impossible. By such means the investigator learned, among other curious facts, that a bee, weight for weight, is thirty times as strong as a horse.—Boston Herald.

The "What Is It."

"When I was a boy in Ohio there came to town one day a covered wagon containing a mysterious animal which was to be exhibited at the opera house that night," said a St. Louis gentleman who still recalls with relish some of his youthful adventures. "They called this creature the 'what is it,' and that night we all crowded into the opera house to see it. The curtain was down. Presently there was a rattle of chains behind the curtain and a scream. A man rushed out, leaped over the footlights and started up the aisle, shouting:

"Run for your lives! The 'what is it' is loose!"

"We got out in a hurry. All of us who could not get to the door went through the windows. After the excitement had quieted somewhat we discovered that the two showmen who brought the 'what is it' to town had disappeared with the receipts. I remember that show better than any other I ever went to. Probably it was the best."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

An Odd Experiment.

A strange and amusing experiment is described by G. Hugo in the Electrical Experimenter as follows:

Place a copper coin on a silver coin. The former should be at least three-sixteenths inch smaller all around than the latter. A cent and a half dollar will do; an English halfpenny and a silver dollar will do better, because they are larger. On the copper coin place an ordinary earthworm and watch it try to crawl off. It cannot do it, for the instant its damp body, which is in contact with the copper, touches the silver it starts a current of electricity that gives it a shock. The shock makes the worm recoil. It tries again, but each time its head touches the silver it gets the shock and soon finds it is more comfortable to stay on the copper coin.

Of course the current thus produced is very slight, but it is quite enough for the worm.

Clever Ruse.

Even more than a fee gratefully paid does a humorous physician enjoy an extra fee adroitly drawn from the hand of a reluctant payer. Sir Richard Jebb was once paid three guineas by a nobleman from whom he had a right to expect five. Sir Richard dropped the coins on the carpet, when a servant picked up and restored them—three and only three. Instead of walking off Sir Richard continued his search on the carpet.

"Are all the guineas found?" asked his lordship, looking around.

"There must be two still on the floor," was the answer, "for I have only three." The hint, of course, was taken, and the right sum was put down.—Doctors and Patients.

Tireless Camels.

An eastern legend has it that the camel was fashioned last by the Creator, and so it is held in very high esteem by the people of the east. Although a somewhat unsightly and perhaps bad tempered animal, the camel is an untiring worker. He will travel on for hour after hour without appearing distressed in any way and on this account has made a good name for himself.—London Answers.

To Thread a Hair Through a Walnut.

To pass a hair through a walnut without boring a hole seems an impossibility, but the feat has often been done. The hull of the walnut when examined with a strong glass is seen to have innumerable small openings, some of which lead entirely through the nut. The trick consists in using a very fine hair and an infinite amount of patience. Pass the hair into one of these minute crevices and urge it gently along. Sometimes it will appear on the other side at the first trial, but if it comes out at the hundred and first you will be very lucky.

NEWARK CO. G NOT SENT TO YOUNGSTOWN

CAPTAIN JOHN S. FLECK RECEIVED WORD IT WOULD NOT BE CALLED.

Organized Only Recently and Green Men Probably Would Have Been a Handicap.

The newly organized company G of this city will not be asked to join the Fourth O. N. G. regiment infantry, sent to quell the mob at the plants of the Youngstown Sheet & Tube and the Republic Iron & Steel companies, early Saturday morning. This information was received by Captain John S. Fleck, of the local company early Saturday morning in a telegram from Adjutant General B. W. Hough of Columbus.

When the call for troops was sent to Columbus by the Youngstown authorities, officers of the Fourth regiment, of which the local company is a part, began sending messages to all out-of-town companies. It was decided, however, not to call company G as the organization only recently was effected and the men still were green to militia work.

This would have worked as a handicap to the officers in restoring order in the strike ridden town. Had the local company been called they would have been in a position to throw 61 men into service in a comparatively short time.

On the urgent appeal of Brigadier General John C. Speaks, Col. C. C. Weybrecht and Sheriff J. C. Umstead of Mahoning county, Governor Willis late Friday night ordered the Fourth, Fifth and Eighth regiments to rush to Youngstown.

East Youngstown early Saturday morning was practically in control of a mob estimated at 2,500, who were applying the torch to buildings, looting stores, attacking men and women in the streets. An estimate of the damage done by the mob last night is placed at $300,000.

Many homes have been destroyed, scores of strike sympathizers have been shot, several perhaps fatally and many buildings in the main section of East Youngstown, razed by fire and dynamite.

NEWLYWEDS WERE GIVEN A BELLING BY APE MEMBERS

About thirty members of the Ape order tendered a "belling" to one of their recent beneficiaries, County Auditor J. W. Hursey, at his home in Clinton street last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hursey were given a rousing "serenade" and the callers then were invited into the house and refreshments served consisting of an appetizing buffet luncheon and other things to cheer.

After cigars had been passed the evening was spent in a social way and Mr. Rall on behalf of the Apes presented Mr. and Mrs. Hursey with a handsome mission rocker. The newly married member of the order responded in a happy vein, thanking the donors and advising the bachelor members to go and do as he had done, forsake single blessedness and live in a happy contemplation of what the future may have in store.

Music was a feature of the evening and the services of Mr. Henry Schwaidt were called into requisition and he rendered a number of popular airs. His splendid voice will be heard in minstrelsy in the near future as he is assisting his brother Elks in staging the musical first part. Mr. Schwaidt's solos were greatly enjoyed and his brother Apes have engaged several boxes for the minstrel when they expect to tender him an ovation.

Everyone present at the "belling" had just the best time possible and enjoyed every moment while present at the Hursey home. The guests left at a late hour after wishing Mr. and Mrs. Hursey wealth, health and happiness while journeying down life's pathway.

Acid in Stomach Sours the Food

Says Excess of Hydrochloric Acid Is Cause of Indigestion.

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion is nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation, then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we evacuate sour food, belch gas, or have heartburn, flatulence, waterbrash, or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast while it is effervescent, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

GRANDFATHER IS AGED 103 YEARS

Tim Sammons, the well known circus man of this city, who is spending the winter in Newark, boasts of a grandfather who is 103 years old, and whose home is at Atchison, Ill. Tim visited his grandfather last summer while the former was touring with the Ringling show and found him in the garden busily engaged in planting vegetables. The grandfather told his grandson that his longevity was due to the fact that he was a believer in out of door exercise and that he frequently walked a half a dozen miles a day. He advised Timmy to keep regular hours and take plenty of out door exercise and assured him that his life would be preserved for many years. The Newarkite expects to visit his grandfather again the coming summer.

The Better Judge.

Some years ago the Oldham amateurs were producing one of Handel's oratorios, under the personal tuition and conductorship of the late Sir Charles Halle. Among the orchestra was the famous and agoutie bassoon player, George Seal of Ashton-under-Lyne. At the first rehearsal Halle went to George and, indicating several bars for the bassoon, told him not to play them on the night of the performance. George was inwardly boiling with indignation, but said nothing. On the night of the performance George played the banned music.

When the affair was over Halle went up to Seal in a great rage and, pointing to the notes, said, "I told you to leave them out, didn't I?"

"Aye, you did," said George. "But Handel told me to put them in, and he were a better judge than you."—London Answers

Washington's Home.

Mount Vernon, historically the most interesting of all American mansions, was erected in 1743 for Lawrence Washington, the half brother of George, and so named in honor of Admiral Edward Vernon, R. N., under whose command Lawrence Washington had served during the British expedition against Cartagena in 1741. The property passed into the hands of George after the death of Lawrence in 1752, and the house was later improved and enlarged. When Mrs. Washington died in 1802 Mount Vernon became, in accordance with Washington's will, the property of his nephew, Bushrod Washington, who in turn bequeathed it to his nephew, John Augustine Washington, from whom it passed to a son of the same name, and in 1858 it was purchased from him by the Mount Vernon Ladies' association.

EARLY MORNING FIRE THREATENS BOWLING ALLEYS

Fire broke out early Saturday morning in the room occupied by the Pastime Bowling Co., 20 North Second street, and threatened to destroy the building and spread to the buildings adjoining on the south side. Prompt work on the part of Patrolman Alonzo Shaw, who discovered the blaze, and three fire companies, prevented Newark from being the scene of another big conflagration. The damage is estimated at $25.

At three a. m. Saturday while Patrolman Shaw was engaged in trying the doors in the East Park place, he noticed that the windows of the Bowling Alley Co. appeared to be heavily steamed. A closer investigation disclosed the fact that the supposed steam was smoke. He immediately turned in an alarm and in a few minutes the Central, East and North fire companies were on the scene.

The room was so dense with smoke that it was with the greatest difficulty that the firemen succeeded in locating the blaze which was about the center of the south wall and gradually eating its way to the adjoining building. Chemicals and an axe were brought into play and the fire was soon extinguished.

The noise of the fire wagons and the firemen at work soon aroused the occupants of the building, who rushed into the streets to ascertain the location of the fire. They were assured that the flames were under control and that there was no further danger.

The origin of the fire was due to a lighted cigar or cigarette being thrown on a coco rug used by the bowlers to clean their shoes before walking upon the alleys. Messrs. Louis Bentz and John Kennedy, who were on duty at the store until 12 o'clock detected smoke in the room, but thought it was due to the heat from a stove on several nearby posts. Water was thrown on the post and the two men locked the store and went home.

The building is owned by James K. Hamill, who now is sojourning in Florida. The damage caused by the flames is covered by insurance.

THREE MEMBERS OF REVISION BOARD APPOINTED TODAY

County Treasurer Will H. Miles, Prosecuting Attorney J. W. Horner, Probate Judge Robbins Hunter and President of the County Board of Commissioners Jos. H. Orr, constituting the county board for the appointment of three members of the county board of revision, met this morning and recommended the appointment of Frank A. Bolton of this city, Bert Jackson of Liberty township and Charles Green of Johnstown, O. The appointments were recommended to the state tax commission of Ohio, and after the board's approval the county members will be sworn into office. They will meet annually on the second Monday in June to organize. The county auditor is to act as secretary of the board and is to be compensated at the rate of $5 per day for such services.

101ST BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED AT GRANVILLE HOME

Granville, Jan. 3.—"Mother" Wartenbee, as she is known by hundreds of Denison college graduates, celebrated her 101st birthday here yesterday. As the proprietress of a homelike boarding house back in the sixties and seventies she was called

MRS. LORINDA WARTENBEE.

"mother" and Denison students since have called her that instead of Mrs. Lorinda Ballou Wartenbee.

In the lineage of her family Mrs. Wartenbee is connected with two former presidents of the United States, William Howard Taft and James A. Garfield. Until three years ago she was able to talk coherently about her past life, but since then her health and mind have been failing. Until two years ago she was never forced to use glasses to any extent. Last year when her centenary was celebrated friends presented her with $100 in gold and a bushel basket was required to bring all the letters and greetings from the postoffice.
